1. An area of approximately 800 x 500 meters has been staked out on the military training ground located near Domazlice (N49-26, E12-56). It is located south of the main road running between Domazlice and Drazenov.
2. This area is being leveled and will be used as an emergency landing strip in connection with the military airfield at Pilsen (N49-45, E13-22). The completed size of the landing ground will be about 1,400 x 150 meters.
3. About 100 meters east of this area several pits are being dug for underground fuel storage. Several wooden huts have been erected east of these pits; they are used as offices and storage sheds.
